RULING ON ENTITLEMENT<sup>1</sup>

On July 30, 2021, Yvonne Romo filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) resulting from adverse effects of an influenza (flu) vaccination she received on September 22, 2020. Petition at 1, 3. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccination was administered within the United States, her vaccine-related injuries lasted more than six months, and neither she, nor any other party, has ever brought an action, or received compensation in the form of an award or settlement for her vaccine-related injuries. Petition at 1-3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 20, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Respondent concluded that "[P]etitioner's claim meets the Table criteria for SIRVA." Id. at 3. Specifically, Respondent determined that Petitioner "had no history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction of the affected shoulder prior to intramuscular vaccine administration that would explain the alleged signs, symptoms, examination findings, and/or diagnostic studies occurring after vaccine injection; she more likely than not suffered the onset of pain within forty-eight hours of vaccine administration; her pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the intramuscular vaccine was administered; and there is no other condition or abnormality present that would explain Petitioner's symptoms." Id. at 3-4. Respondent further agrees that "the case was timely filed, that the vaccine was received in the United States, and that Petitioner satisfies the statutory severity requirement by suffering the residual effects or complications of her injury for more than six months after vaccine administration." Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
